The Honorable George H. Bush
Director of Central Intelligence

Dear Mr. Bush:

Your willingness to set aside time to spend with representatives of the Agency community in [redacted] was very much appreciated by all. Your interest in what is being done here obviously reflects the intensity of your approach to the challenge of your new responsibilities.

The loyalty and support instinctively supplied to you by Agency men and women in this corner of the country, have gained an even greater measure of enthusiasm as a result of our meeting you.

Sincerely,
